Scranton Dry Mon. and see the papers on sale. I see the Select are still holding a cut in prices.

I think Mrs. Martin gave you about the right measure.

I shall not get paper down here unless I find something very much worth while as I like the store in Carbondale all right.

You asked what I thought of the awful happening on Fairview St. & It certainly gets me beatin. I understand that the victims family are not or were not with him in America. Carbondale has got its inside out side in so many ways.

Mother gave me her pen and said to write while she rested a bit. I am glad to do so as I have two favors to ask for something you are saying - As usual, I am ready The first is: Will you call Mildred Thorpe (Mrs Roy) and tell her I am pleased with the plans for Book
